This is a reminder to bulletin number 201311281 issued on 28 Nov 2013, regarding the conditions of Entering The Republic of Germany with a Schengen Visa.

According to the letter no. 405/2/8 dated 20/10/1430H issued by the Saudi Embassy in Germany, which states the conditions of entering Germany and the obligation to obtain a Schengen visa through one of their embassies or going through one of the Schengen visa countries first and then entering Germany.

As per Schengen rules and regulations, passenger has to obtain a visa through the Embassy/Consulate of the country he will be staying at the most, otherwise he will not be allowed to enter the country he planning to visit even if he obtained a valid Schengen visa.

Important notes on Schengen visa concerning the embassy through which it must be obtained and exceeding the allowed period according to rules and regulations of Schengen:

1- If the passenger is traveling to only one of the Schengen countries, then he must obtain a visa through the embassy of that country and he will be allowed to travel via any of the Schengen courtiers to his main destination.

E.g. If the passenger’s main destination was Holland, then he must obtain his Schengen visa through the embassy of Holland and he can travel to Holland via any of the Schengen countries such as France, Spain, Germany and others towards his main destination.
